IÉSEG School of Management is one of the top business schools in France, ranked 31st in the latest Financial Times global ranking of the top 95 Master in Management programs. As a French Grande École and member of the Conférence des Grandes Écoles, IÉSEG is one of the most prestigious higher education institutions in the country. It has also been awarded the 3 principal international accreditations: EQUIS, AACSB and AMBA.

The School is historically renowned for its traditional Grande École Program, a prestigious program that takes students from the beginning of their higher education studies through to a master’s degree. Students are eligible for admission immediately after graduating high school. This five-year program is divided into a three-year BBA and two-year Master program, either of which can also be completed independently. But IÉSEG also proposes one Bachelor in International Business, 9 Masters of Science (International Business, Fashion Management, Digital Marketing & CRM, Business Analysis & Consulting, International Accounting, Audit & Control, Finance, Investment Banking & Capital Markets, International Business Negotiation and Big Data Analytics for Business), one International MBA, one Executive MBA, one Spring and two Summer Programs.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES
This exciting Summer Program in International Fashion Business combines theoretical study with hands-on experience from brands in the apparel industry. Students will learn basic knowledge in all of the key areas associated with the fashion business including brand development and positioning, marketing, distribution, advertising, and consumer behavior.

WEEK 1
The «Introduction to Fashion Management» module will provide participants with a basis of fundamental managerial tools and with the necessary conceptual framework to understand and follow contemporary fashion languages and trends.

Throughout the course, students will gain an understanding of how the fashion industry is structured, learning what the different business models and categories are, and studying best practices in terms of marketing and operational strategies. Finally, students will learn how to successfully interpret current trends and understand consumer needs.

COURSE DESIGN
Each module contains a mix of lectures from both academics and professionals in the field. They are designed to develop the intellectual ability of students through the understanding of the principles and practices of fashion business and their application in connection with the apparel and luxury goods industry.

WEEK 2
The «Fashion Communications» module will have students engaging in a critical analysis of this deeply image oriented industry viewed from multiple perspectives – advertising, public and press relations, event management, and multichannel forms of communication.

The primary objectives of the course are to highlight the importance of using communication tools to create an image of a consistent brand, to skillfully use visual and writing techniques; and to develop the necessary strategies to communicate in the dynamic and innovative environment that defines the nature of fashion. Case studies will help participants understand how traditional communication strategies can complement technologically creative ones in order to develop more interactivity and consumer engagement.
“I particularly enjoyed the level and breadth of courses offered, plus the situation of the campus in the central business district was impressive. There were also several extracurricular activities, which enhanced the experience and gave a further insight into Paris.”

Alexander EZEDIN
University of Nottingham, UK

“I don’t know where to begin: the superb accommodation, the dream campus location, the fantastic professors and coordinators, the interesting courses or the multicultural group? I couldn’t have asked for more! This really was an opportunity of a life time and I couldn’t be more grateful to have been a part of it.”

Katherine LI
University of Queensland, Australia

“The biggest benefits of participating were the academic knowledge I have acquired and the contacts I have made. It really helps you thinking globally for either academic or professional choices. IÉSEG Summer Academy is unique to each student. You choose the subjects you are going to take and make it personal. More than that, the international environment totally opens your horizons and broadens your network.”
